

Kentucky 4-H Leadership Center

“The Jabez Journal”

July 2007 edition

We hope everyone is having a wonderful summer. We certainly are here in Jabez. It’s nice to have beautiful Lake Cumberland near by to cool off when the days are 95 in the shade. Our guests always want to see the lake during the visit. This photo was taken from the beach area at Lake Cumberland 4-H Camp .

We have been very busy during the month of July hosting the following groups:

The Kentucky Arts Council-----

The Kentucky Arts Council's annual 'Design Your Own Professional Development' teacher training using professional artists from the KAC Arts Education roster were at the Center for 7 days during July. Over 135 professional artists and teachers attended. The group made a decision during their stay at the center to join the “adopt a room” campaign by adopting one our meeting rooms. If you are familiar with the center, you will recognize the name of the room as “The Maple Room”. It is located on the lower level. When completed, the room will be named the “Kentucky Arts Council Room” and the decorations will reflect their artistic talent. We appreciate their support. The group has been coming to the Center for many years.

Cumberland Dance Camp-----

American folk dances and the associated traditional music embody fundamental values of great worth to our culture, our nation and our children. Cumberland Dance Week, sponsored by the Lloyd Shaw Foundation, promotes these values by opening doors for greater participation by new dancers and musicians and, in particular, by nurturing newfound love of dancing and music by children and youth. Our mission is to use, and thereby preserve, the joyful dances and music we inherited -- and to pass it all on to the next generation. Over 140 guests joined this group in a 7 day stay during July. Dance Camp has also agreed to adopt a room at the center. This group has been coming to the center for many years.

Latest update on room adoptions-----

We would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone that has supported the center by adopting a room. Your kindness has really made a difference! We have thousands of guests that attend conferences and retreats annually and they have all have expressed appreciation and excitement about our beautifully decorated rooms. We have guests that attend from all across the United States and they enjoyed getting to see more of Kentucky by staying in rooms that reflect each county's heritage.
