

UK COOPERATIVE EXTENSION SERVICE
 UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY — COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE
KENTUCKY 4-H POULTRY JUDGING CONTEST

Scoring Factors	Max.Score
A. Appearance (general neatness) and delivery.....	24
1. Did contestant stand still, on both feet, and face judges?
2. Did contestant speak clearly, distinctly, and loud enough to be heard?
3. Did contestant have appropriate opening and closing sentence?
4. Did contestant speak smoothly and without long pauses?
5. Did contestant have confidence; was contestant convincing?
B. Proper use of terms.....	20
1. Did contestant mention such factors as pigment, handling quality, abdominal capacity, molt and so forth, or were terms used that do not apply to judging egg production?
2. Did contestant use the terms properly?
3. Did contestant understand the terms used?
4. Was contestant able to define the terms? (Contestant may be asked to define some.)
C. Accuracy of statements.....	20
1. Did the contestant really see the birds?
2. Were contestant's statements true, partly true, or false?
D. Completeness of coverage.....	36
1. Did contestant actually tell why the placed one bird over another, or just vaguely describe the bird?.....	(10)
2. Did contestant stress the crucial differences, or just make stereotype comparisons of numerous factors?.....	(16)
3. Did contestant tell all there was to tell of importance, or were there several other good reasons that should have been given for the placing?.....	(10)

NOTE: The judges may ask contestants to define one or two comparative terms.