

State 4-H Communications Day

University of Kentucky — Directions & Parking

The annual State 4-H Communications Day is held in July on the University of Kentucky Campus in the Whitehall Classroom Building. Possible directions are listed below. It is suggested that you confirm these with your 4-H agent or someone familiar with the Lexington area prior to travel due to continuous road upgrades around the University campus.

Driving Directions

Other Information

Parking The Administration Drive access will allow you to drop off and pick up supplies. There is no parking on this road. Free parking is available in any University of Kentucky designated “E” parking lot. Parking is also available in the University of Kentucky Bookstore parking lot (entrance off Euclid/Avenue of Champions). A 24 hour “for pay” parking structure is available at South Limestone/South Upper. See Map for Parking on next page.

Meals/Food: Whenever possible we request the Student Center food court to have one or more shops open. However, this is not always possible. A few of the restaurants within walking distance are Arby’s (corner of South Limestone/South Upper merge); Fazoli’s (corner of Winslow Street & South Upper); McDonald’s (corner of South Limestone & Pine Street)
