

Nonpoint Source Pollution Quiz - Key

Circle the response that fills in the blank in each statement below.

1. The most common water quality problem in the United States today is _____ pollution.
A. point source B. intentional C. nonpoint source D. piped
2. Nonpoint source pollution cannot be traced back to a _____.
A. starting place B. pipe C. single source D. all of these
3. Storm water is runoff water from _____ and snowmelt.
A. rain B. hoses C. faucets D. car washes
4. Sediment is _____ that is carried in water.
A. soil B. chemicals C. oil D. all of these
5. Sediment and _____ are the most common things carried in runoff.
A. chemicals B. oil C. nutrients D. pesticides
6. Nutrients can come from _____.
A. pet waste B. animal manure C. fertilizer D. all of these
7. Oil and automotive fluids can wash off _____.
A. parking lots B. driveways C. roads D. all of these
8. _____ management practices can help prevent nonpoint pollution.
A. worst B. careless C. best D. any

Developed by Kim Henken, Extension Associate for Environmental and Natural Resource Issues.