

KEHA Food, Nutrition & Health Awards

Recognition for Ovarian Cancer Financial Contributions

- A plaque will be awarded to the county with the largest amount per member.
- A plaque will be awarded to the county with the largest amount overall.
- Certificates will be given to each county that has 100% participation. (At least $1 contributed per member)
- Recognition will be given to each county that contributes more than 100%.
- Recognition will be given to each county donating over $1000.
- Recognition will be given to any club donating over $1000.

*The above will be based upon amounts forwarded to the KEHA treasurer between March 1, 2009 and December 31, 2009.

2009 Ovarian Cancer Fundraising Contest

An award will be given to the most creative entry describing the fund raising efforts for ovarian cancer.

- This can be a club, county, group of counties, or an area project.
- For the 2009 Award- project must have been completed between January 1, 2009 and December 31, 2009.
 - Entries must be submitted by March 1, 2010.

These awards will be presented at the 2010 State Meeting.

Guidelines:

All entries must be in a folder or binder and include:

Cover sheet (see Appendix 20)

Description of project

How many members were involved in carrying out project?

How many members attended?

How many non-members attended?

Were other agencies, organizations, or KEHA chairs involved?

If so whom and how?

What role did the community play?

Send all contest entries to: Donna Shoemaker
5515 West KY 10
Tollesboro, KY 41189

2009-2010 Recognition for participation in the Kentucky Women's Health Registry

- * A certificate will be awarded to every county with KEHA members completing a new or renewal KWHR survey in the last year.
- * A plaque will be awarded to the top three counties with the highest rate of completion of either a new or renewal KWHR survey.
- * Women who are not members of a homemakers club but who indicate on the second page of the survey that they heard about the registry through a homemakers club member will also be counted in the total of women who completed a survey.
- * This contest will be administered by the Kentucky Women's Health Registry.

Promoting a Healthy Kentucky Contest

An award will be given to the most creative way to promote health issues.

- A plaque will be awarded for 1st.
- 2nd and 3rd places will receive certificates.
- Projects should be completed between January 2009 – December 2009.
- Entries must be submitted by March 1, 2010.

Guidelines:

All entries must include:

- Project must be in a folder or binder.
- Cover sheet (Appendix 20)
- Description of project
- How many members involved
- How many non-members involved
- Were other agencies, organizations or KEHA chairs involved.
- Include any pictures and newspaper clippings.

Send all contest entries to: Donna Shoemaker
5515 W KY 10
Tollesboro, KY41189