

FAMILY AND INDIVIDUAL DEVELOPMENT CONTEST
CONTEST AWARD, 2009-2010
Chair Back Covers

Overview

- Description of contest topic: chair covers project, including supplying of children's books for the covers
- Reasons for importance of the project for children's literacy development – anticipated outcomes
- Origin of the project: Acknowledgment of the county or club that developed the original idea and gave permission for statewide use for the project idea for the project
- Instructions for making the chair covers
- Suggestions for selecting and obtaining the children's books to be placed in the covers

Rules for entering the contest

- Place the contest project in a binder or a folder with cover page – name of your club or the number of clubs in your county that collaborated the project
- Include items such as:
 - Photos
 - News Clippings (if applicable)
 - Human interest stories that illustrate the development of children's literacy and the improvement in amount of time spent in family reading
 - Number of classrooms that participated and which grades were served
 - Number of chair covers made, where were they distributed to, who helped make them
 - Any community agencies whom collaborated in the making, distribution, providing books, materials or hands on to make or distribute
 - Actual letters, stories or acknowledgements from administrators, teachers, others whom were recipients of this project and its impact on their facilities.

To submit your entry

Submit your entry for display at the 2010 KEHA Annual meeting, by March 1, 2010 to:

Wanda Atha

475 Hwy 151

Frankfort, KY 40601

Questions may be directed to Wanda Atha at 502-223-1890 or email at wanda.atha@ky.gov