

County Program Reviews

The county program review process allows county staff and review teams the chance to evaluate how well Extension is programming to reach the total county population. It is an internal process that involves an in-depth examination of the procedures and practices that impact the scope of the county program. County program reviews will be conducted in each county every five years.

County Program Review Schedule (pdf)

County Program Review Report Form (Word)

Materials to Support County Review Process (Word)

Follow-up Response to County Review Recommendations (Form to be Completed by Counties) (Word)